ISO/IEC 20000-1 Requirements training course

Essential information about the course

Level

ISO/IEC 20000-1, the international standard for a service management system, helps you respond to increasing service requirements and deliver value for customers. So make sure you understand the requirements that can help you build effective and resilient services.

Our one-day ISO/IEC 20000-1 requirements course is an excellent introduction to the standard. You'll learn how to interpret and apply the key concepts and principles of the standard to existing processes within your organization.

Plus you'll understand the benefits of implementing a service management system (SMS) in your organization to improve service delivery for your customers.

Packed with practical activities, group discussion and classroom learning, our expert tutors will make sure you complete the course feeling confident that you can apply your new knowledge as soon as you step back inside your organization.
